

PROGRAM

Day 1, June 23rd (Thursday):

Ljubljana

11:30–12:00	Registration
12:00–13:30	Ljubljana guided city walk	Guided by: Primož Pipan, ZRC SAZU
13:30–14:30	Light lunch
14:30–20:00	Presentations	Presenters and titles
14:30–14:45		Matija Zorn, Paul F. Hudson Introduction to the meeting
14:45–15:00		Rok Ciglič Landscape diversity in Europe and in Slovenia
15:00–15:15		Slobodan B. Marković Mass movements on the Fruška Gora mountain (Serbia) - Introducing an excellent natural laboratory for slope movement monitoring
15:15–15:30		Gábor Gercsák The development of a lake after landslides
15:30–15:45		Gergely Horváth Spectacular badland on rhyolite tuff in north Hungary
15:45–16:00		Blaž Komac Assessment of co-seismic slope processes in Slovenia
16:00–16:30	Coffee break
16:30–16:45		Špela Kumelj Involvement of the Geological survey of Slovenia in the field of natural hazard risk management

16:45–17:00	Barbara Lampič Brownfield sites – how we cope with increasing number of abandoned or underused land in Slovenia
17:00–17:15	Paul F. Hudson Degradation of hydrologic connectivity along large rivers by floodplain embankment
17:15–17:30	Andrea Vacca The revival of coppicing in Sardinia (Italy): does soil matter?
17:30–17:45	Mateja Breg Valjavec Degraded karst relief: waste-filled dolines
17:45–18:00	Short break
18:00–18:15	Moshe Inbar Human impact on geomorphic processes in the Middle East since the Palaeolithic period: the Israel case
18:15–18:30	Renata Dulias Blowing sand as a result of past and contemporary deforestation: A study of the Silesian-Cracow upland in Poland
18:30–18:45	Koichi Kimoto Making the peripheral “region” India – from a case of Nagarahole national park, Karnataka, India
18:45–19:00	Owen P. Graham COMLAND 2014 Field Trip in Tasmania - a review
19:00–19:15	Matija Zorn Short presentation of the field trip
19:15–20:15	Icebreaker

---

Day 2, June 24th (Friday):
Julian Alps (NW Slovenia)

8:00–19:00

Alpine landscape dynamics (with emphasis on avalanches, rockfalls and debris flows)

Guided by:
Matija Zorn, Mateja Ferk, Jure Tičar, Primož Gašperič, Miha Pavšek, Blaž Komac, ZRC SAZU

Day 3, June 25th (Saturday):
Julian Alps (NW Slovenia)

8:30–19:00

World War I: Impacts on the landscape (100th anniversary of the Isonzo/Šoča front)

Guided by:
Boštjan Lužnik, Kobarid Museum Matija Zorn, Mateja Ferk, Jure Tičar, Primož Gašperič, ZRC SAZU

Day 4, June 26th (Sunday):
Mediterranean Slovenia (SW Slovenia)

8:30–19:00

Erosion processes in flysch (with emphasis on landslides, coastal retreat, and soil erosion)

Guided by:
Matija Zorn, Mateja Ferk, Jure Tičar, Primož Gašperič, ZRC SAZU

Day 5, June 27th (Monday):
Dinaric Karst (SW, S Slovenia)

8:30–19:00

Vulnerability of karst landscape

Guided by:
Matija Zorn, Mateja Ferk, Jure Tičar, Primož Gašperič, Mateja Breg Valjavec, ZRC SAZU